

The Educators' Trust - Summer Event

6pm Friday 7 June 2024

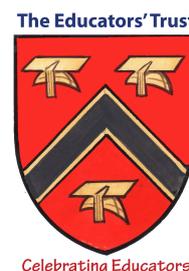

at the Charterhouse Campus of Queen Mary University London
(previously 'Barts Medical School')

Mental Health in Education — Inspiring Solutions

Come and hear Trust award winners present their positive stories about creative and innovative work that is going on in our schools, colleges and universities to support the mental health and well-being of our children and young people.

Followed by an interactive panel session with a panel of experts and drinks and refreshments

The presentations will take place in the Rotblat Lecture Theatre which is in the Old Anatomy Building (No. 6 on the map below) accessed by entering the gates to the campus area (previously 'Barts Medical School') on Rutland Place off Charterhouse Square. Immediately turn right and the doors to the Old Anatomy Building are signposted on your right.

Drinks and refreshments after the presentations and panel discussion will be provided in The Shield (No. 4 on the map below) and the evening will finish at 8.30pm.

Nearby stations are:

Barbican on Circle/Hammersmith & City/Metropolitan Lines (turn left out of the station and then first left in to Charterhouse Street and then Charterhouse Square), and The Barbican exit from Farringdon on the Elizabeth Line (turn left out of the station through to Charterhouse Square). Street parking is available on the south side of Charterhouse Square but is extremely limited.

If you wish to attend please book via the members' area of the company website.
